January 2018

As we say goodbye to 2017 we can reflect on everything we have achieved but also build on it for 2018. Our motto for this year is: Think BIG, believe BIG, act BIG and the results will be BIG."

Reflecting on 2017

Congratulations are in order...

In the last week of November we had our final Dinaledi workshops for 2017. It was a year filled with learning, playing, growing and loving together.

219 ECD practitioners received certificates for their attendance of the different programmes and it was inspiring for us to see how these practitioners have been grown during the last year.

We can see how the support network that they have formed among each other encourages them to teach their children, care for their communities and even love themselves better.

There is a saying that as long as you've got passion, faith and are willing to work hard, you can do anything you want in this life.

Little things, means a lot!

We are so thankful for the helping hands and generous hearts at the Bafenyi Trust. It is a privilege to see different stakeholders working together to make sure that all children have equal opportunities to reach their full potential.

Growing Trees preschool and Kagiso creche ,in Marikana, says THANKS to Anna Mayer for the donation of toys!

The students from Girls High Potchefstroom donated toys to Bafenyi Trust. We will expand our toy library to make it possible for all children in Ikageng and Promosa to benefit from this.

Twelve schools were blessed with maize meal from Abundant Grace ministries. Thank you that you care!!

Growing Bigger

A practitioner from Sigagula Village , Acornhoek in Mpumalanga, Brenda Mathebula, visited us at Bafenyi. We are very excited to see that we can help people all over South-Africa!

Learning how to re-use waste material is a great way of recycling. Staff from Bafenyi (Queen, Mbali and Ntswaki) attended a workshop at the NWU on how to make great things from waste.

From our Community engagement the Tswelopele craft group was founded. They are meeting on Mondays at Bafenyi's office and will make hats, tablecloths, bedspreads with donations of wool and material.

Viktorija, Mareike, Mbali and Ntswaki transformed the playground of Buttons and Bows (Promosa) into a paradise!!
